

Definition	A Public Service Announcement (PSA) is a message created to inform or educate the public about an issue of public interest, typically without commercial intent.
	PSAs are often produced by government agencies, non-profit organizations, or media outlets to raise awareness, promote positive behavior, or provide information on various topics
Category	Sub-Category	Description
Health	Disease Prevention and Control:	PSAs focused on preventing or managing diseases, such as malaria vaccination campaigns, HIV/AIDS awareness, or tuberculosis screening initiatives.
	Maternal and Child Health:	Announcements promoting maternal healthcare, child vaccinations, or nutrition programs for infants and pregnant women.
	Public Health Campaigns:	General health promotion, including hygiene practices, sanitation, or campaigns against non-communicable diseases like diabetes.
	Mental Health Awareness	PSAs addressing mental health issues, such as stress management, suicide prevention, or access to counseling services.
	Healthcare Access:	Information about accessing healthcare services, such as free medical camps, health insurance programs, or hospital locations.
Agriculture	Crop Production:	PSAs on improving crop yields, pest control, or adopting drought-resistant crops suitable for Kenyan farmers.
	Livestock Management:	Announcements about livestock health, vaccination programs for animals, or sustainable grazing practices.
	Agribusiness and Market Access:	Information on market opportunities, fair trade practices, or agricultural cooperatives for small-scale farmers.
	Sustainable Farming:	PSAs promoting environmentally friendly practices, such as organic farming, soil conservation, or water management.
	Agricultural Training:	Programs offering training on modern farming techniques, irrigation methods, or use of fertilizers.
Education	Access to Education:	PSAs encouraging school enrollment, adult literacy programs, or government initiatives for free primary and secondary education.
	Vocational Training:	Announcements about technical and vocational education programs, such as skills training for youth or women.
	Civic Education:	Campaigns to educate the public on voter registration, civic rights, or participation in national education policies.
	Educational Resources:	Information on accessing scholarships, bursaries, or free learning materials like textbooks or online courses.
	School Safety and Inclusion:	PSAs promoting safe school environments, anti-bullying campaigns, or inclusion of students with disabilities.
Security & Safety	Public Safety Awareness:	PSAs on road safety, fire prevention, or disaster preparedness (e.g., flood or drought response).
	Crime Prevention:	Announcements encouraging reporting of crimes, anti-corruption drives, or community policing initiatives.
	National Security:	PSAs about counter-terrorism measures, border security, or national peace-building efforts.
	Gender-Based Violence:	Campaigns addressing domestic violence, sexual assault prevention, or support services for survivors.
	Cybersecurity:	Information on protecting against online scams, data privacy, or safe internet usage. e.g. Alerts from mpesa or banks
Governance	Anti-Corruption Initiatives:	PSAs promoting transparency, encouraging reporting of corruption, or highlighting anti-corruption policies and agencies (e.g., Ethics and Anti-Corruption Commission campaigns).
	Public Participation:	Announcements encouraging citizen involvement in governance processes, such as public forums, policy consultations, or devolution programs.
	Elections and Voter Education:	PSAs focused on voter registration, election processes, or educating citizens about their electoral rights and responsibilities.
	Public Service Delivery:	Campaigns addressing improvements in government services, such as access to IDs, passports, or digital service platforms like e-Citizen.
	Devolution and Local Governance:	PSAs promoting decentralized governance, county government initiatives, or community-based development projects.